Dear Family,

Each year we hear stories in the gospels of how we are to go forth and preach the good news to all who will listen about Jesus Christ, and His Love for us.

This weekend we had a perfect opportunity to do just that through our actions. Saturday was Behold KC, the interdiocesan Eucharistic celebration. By being a part of this celebration, we were showing the greater Kansas City area just how important Jesus Christ is to us, as well as the greater community.

We are aware of how the Eucharist is the source and summit of our faith. Now we can show to those around us just what that means to us as well as it can be for them. I pray that as many as possible could be a part of this celebration. If you were not able, please continue to pray that what may have started at the event will become fruitful in the soul and hearts of others. May God Bless all this week as well as always.

God Loves us all, just believe Him, thank Him, and Love Him.

Deacon Joe

Ascension of Our Lord

Next Sunday is the Ascension of Our Lord. While the actual date is Thursday, our Ecclesiastical Province celebrates on Sunday. Thursday is not a holyday of obligation, but we would love to see you at Mass Thursday and Sunday.

May Crowning

Next Sunday is Mother's Day. We celebrate our Blessed Mother in a special way with May crowning. All children who want to process in with flowers should be in the back of church by 9:50 AM. If you have garden flowers, please feel free to bring them to share.

Mass of Nigerian Celebration

The Igbo tribe of Nigeria will observe a special Mass 12:30 next Sunday. We welcome them in their special celebration.

Rest in Peace

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Jean McLafferty, former parishioner, who was received in the arms of our Lord this week. At printing, funeral services are undetermined. Please watch Flocknote for more details. May her soul and the soul of all the faithful departed rest in peace.
