Dear Family,

Throughout all of Jesus' life on earth, He was trying to teach us what we needed to be in relationship with God the Father. Those times the Pharisees had a good idea: the law tells us what to do. Do this and you will be blessed. Do that and you will be cursed. It is that simple.

So why does Jesus complicate everything by saying that the greatest law is love? In the beginning there was only one law: you may not eat of that one tree. But we couldn't even do that one simple thing. Now God wants us to do something as complicated as love? God has tried everything. He has yelled at us (through the prophets); he has punished us (by kicking us out of the garden); he has tried to scare us into change (Sodom and Gomorrah). Nothing gets through until he demonstrates exactly what it is he desires from us: love. He demonstrates this by showing compassion and mercy to each person he meets, by dying for us an innocent man killed for the guilt of all of us.

Love is the greatest commandment because it is of God.

May our Love for one another continue to grow as well as that for our Savior.

Deacon Joe

Pictures of Deceased

The month of November is a traditional time the Church remembers our beloved dead. Continuing our tradition, we will display pictures of our deceased in the gathering space throughout the month. Please bring your photos for display. On November 3, after the 8:00 AM Mass we will have a brunch and celebration of their lives in the Parish Hall.
