Dear Family,

As we enter the Second week of Advent it is the time for us to reflect on how we show the world what we know of Our Lord and Savior and His message to us.

We will comfort the world when we show it that God sees with the eyes of the heart. God never feels frightened or wronged by the assertions of our freedom. God always opens another door when we close one. God is not put off by all the times we turn our back on what we know is best. God empathizes with our lusts, our greed, our anger, our jealousies, our failures, and with our every despair. God never stops loving us for a moment even when we put ourselves in hell. God descends into all the hells we create, stands in the middle of our huddled, shivering, timid, wounded, and guilty heart and breathes out peace. This is the message that we should convey to all we meet. God loves all and wants all to be with Him for all eternity. We need to open our hearts to that fact. Have a Blessed Advent Season.

Deacon Joe

P.S. Thank you for all the warm wishes on my birthday. I am truly Blessed at all times.

Plan Ahead

Our children's giving tree in the Gathering Space awaits your unwrapped gifts this weekend for children who need our help. Thank you for your generosity.

We have treasured your family photos during November. To extend that joy, place an "angel" dedicated in someone's name on our Angel Tree to be displayed throughout the Christmas season. Return forms in the Gathering space to the basket this weekend.

Living Waters: How does Jesus transform our brokenness into a gift to His Church? We can begin by applying His mercy to the ways we fail to love well: our sexual sin, sins against us, giving too much, or withholding ourselves altogether. We will seek wholeness through honest admission of our brokenness. Living Waters is a confidential, in-depth 20 week prayer/healing group for men and women, marrieds, and singles. Monday's starting in January 2024 at St Thomas More church. Email Katie at kcomiskey@desertstream.org for more info or to apply.

Confirmation: If you have a child, sixth grade or older, who is interested in receiving the sacrament of Confirmation in 2024, please let us know and sign up in the Gathering Space. We will begin informational sessions after the first of the year.
